

Sex & the City touches down at Novotel Barossa for a girly weekend!

Media Release: February 2009

Bringing a little Sex & the City to the Barossa is the Novotel Barossa Valley Resort who has come up with the perfect girls escape – Manicures & Martinis! As if staying at the newly refurbished resort was not glamorous enough, this package will make sure the girls totally unwind during their trip to South Australia's favourite vines.

You can choose whether it will be your hands or feet that receive the pampering with the choice of a pedicure or manicure for each guest at the resort's on-site day spa – endota.

When you are finished and feeling fabulous, it's time to fulfil the second part of the New York-style equation – Martinis! A $50 drink voucher will be ready at the bar of Harry's restaurant where you will watch the sunset with panoramic views over the Barossa vineyards. A 'Barossa Platter' for two, showcasing some of the regions best local produce, can be shared in the company of other restaurant diners or back in the newly refurbished rooms.

If you wanted to take the luxury one step further, a Spa Suite is the go. Indulge yourself in a relaxing soak before watching chick flicks on the five extra Foxtel stations, or having a dance in your room, to music played through your personal iPod docking station.

A unique Hens night experience, the package also caters for small groups with the option to upgrade to a two bedroom apartment (sleeps 4) for an additional $100 per night. Additional manicures or pedicures are available at just $85 per treatment. What an ideal weekend away for the bride and her bridal party!

The Manicures & Martinis Package includes over night accommodation for two people at the Novotel Barossa Valley Resort in a newly refurbished Studio Room, the choice of a manicure or pedicure for each guest at endota, followed by martinis in the bar of Harry's Restaurant to the value of $50 and a 'Barossa Platter' for two. Packages from $456 per night. Additional nights at $211 including breakfast for two.

Rates valid through until 28 February 2010, subject to availability, conditions apply. For more information or bookings please contact the Resort on 08 8524 0000 or 1300 657 697
