

FAREWELL 2009 AND WELCOME 2010 IN 'MILD' OR 'WILD' STYLE' AT NOVOTEL BAROSSA VALLEY RESORT

3 November 2009: Are you mild or wild? At Novotel Barossa Valley Resort you can take a walk on the wild – or the mild – side these Christmas holidays and see in the New Year with a roar or ease into it in style like a superbly aged Barossa red.

Throughout December and January the Novotel is offering 'Mild' or 'Wild' packages, giving you the chance farewell 2009 and bring in 2010 in your own unique style.

If you want to ease through the remainder of 2009 and enter 2010 relaxed, rejuvenated and ready to go then the 'Mild' package is for you, including:

- A 'red wine bath' at the Novotel's on-site Endota Spa for two – a relaxing soak in this uniquely Barossa experience will ensure you say a blissful goodbye to the old and a warm welcome to the new year
- Overnight accommodation in a superbly appointed spa room including a complimentary bottle of Australian sparkling wine
- A sumptuous 2 course dinner in Harrys Restaurant where traditional Barossa faire is taken to a new level in the hands of Head Chef James Dooley and his Michelin star-trained Sous Chef Ben Riley.

In contrast, the 'Wild' package will challenge your senses and help you 'kick the door shut' on 2009 ready to take on 2010 with confidence and vigor, including:

- An invigorating trike ride for two around Australia's premier wine region to get your motor running, leaving your cares of 2009 on the side of the open road
- Overnight accommodation in an elegant Studio room with a bottle of Australian sparkling wine to get the party started
- An enticing 2 course meal in Harrys Restaurant specializing in 'wild' produce including rabbit, quail and kangaroo all sourced locally and prepared by the Novotel's expert chefs.

Get 'mild' or 'wild' amongst the vines from $350 per night and get festive or get partying like its 2010. For bookings phone the Novotel Barossa Valley Resort on 08 8524 0000. Valid 1 December to 31 January 2010, subject to availability.

Situated on a panoramic hillside, the award-winning Novotel Barossa Valley Resort overlooks magnificent views of the Barossa's renowned vineyards. Other resort facilities include a sun-drenched pool and barbeque area, outdoor pool table and chess game, bike hire, and extensive tasting room offering variety of in excess of 60 Barossa white and red wine producers.

-ends-